

I believe in the free market. XM Radio should have the right to broadcast local programming in competition with local radio stations. I fully support XM Radio's position.